

PDQ Service & Supplies LLC located in Oneonta NY is a family owned business dealing in sales and service of office equipment including printers, copiers and fax machines. As well as sales of supplies for machines and print shop services.

PDQ has had the pleasure of serving the office equipment and printing needs of Oneonta and surrounding areas for the last 30 years and is looking to give back to the community that's been supporting us and our services for those 3 decades. To that end, PDQ will be giving a printer/copier to a local nonprofit organization once a month for the next year, that is in need of the office equipment to help facilitate their daily operation and outreach in the community.

- * All applications should be sent to hopepdq@stny.rr.com.
- * Applicant may be required to provide proof of nonprofit status.
- * Organization must be within 40 miles of PDQ.

If your application is not chosen the month you submit it there is no need to resubmit each month. Your application will be automatically placed in subsequent monthly drawings until your application is either chosen or until the ending of the 12 month giveaway program.
